TRAPPED IN ELEVATOR BETWEEN THE FLOORS

Fire Raging In Motor Room And Smoke Pouring Down Shaft Above Their Heads

BLAZE IN THE BROOKHILL BUILDING

Trapped in the elevator cage midway between the first and second floors of the Brookhill building this morning, Campbell Bohannon, the elevator boy, and a patient on his way to see a doctor in the building, were held for several minutes, while they watched tiny tongues of flame, licking out from the motor room overhead and sending volumes of smoke down the shaft into their faces.

Fire had broken out in the motor room and a fuse had burned out, holding the cage three feet from a door and surrounded by solid walls. Finally the machinery above let go and the cage sank gently to the first floor, so the passengers could get out.

Later in the morning, while cleaning the floors of the plaster and water on the third floor, Bohannon received a severe electric shock. Water is one of the finest conductors and the current came down the walls of the building from the attic where the elevator apparatus is, to the floor and along the wet floor into his hands. He backed off in hot haste till the wires had been fixed so the "juice" would not flow.

Fire broke out in the motor room at the top of the elevator shaft, in the Brookhill building, Fourth street and Broadway, this morning at 8:30 o'clock and for a time it looked serious. By hard work on the part of fire companies, Nos. 1, 3 and 4, under the direction of Acting Chief Jake Elliott, the blaze was extinguished with but a few hundred dollars damage fully covered by insurance.

William Brainard, the architect, occupies a suite of rooms on the third floor, and smelled the smoke. He looked up and saw smoke issuing from the motor box. He climbed to the roof but failed to get into the motor house, so he could close all openings and waited for the fire companies which were notified by telephone.

The chemical trucks of companies Nos. 2 and 3 with the combination ladder and chemical truck of company No. 3, answered. The chemicals were freely played from the roof and from the third floor. On account of the location of the fire it was a hard one to fight.

Wire Inspector McPherson cut all wires. The fire resulted from a hot box in the motor of a crossed wire. The only damage otherwise done to the building was suffered by Dr. G. T. Gilbert, osteopath. Water soaked his carpets and the walls. The damage will amount to about $100 fully covered by insurance.

The building is leased by Friedman-Keller & company.

A careful examination made of the motor room after the fire was extinguished showed that it evidently originated from sparks from the motor or the blowing out of a fuse, either one being liable to have started the conflagration. The motor was damaged but can be repaired and kept in service.

DIES ON HER WAY TO ASYLUM.

Woman Expires in Arms of Guard During Trip in Automobile.

Kankakee, Ill., Oct. 11.—When an automobile conveying Miss Minnie Leggett, of Morris, to the Illinois insane hospital reached Bourbonnais today, Mrs. James Derenz, who had charge of the patient and held her in her arms, discovered that the woman had died on the way. A niece, Miss Kate McLean, is a Chicago school teacher.

Frolic Captured.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 11.—The yacht Frolic, sought by revenue and immigration officers along the entire New England coast for the past few weeks, was captured today. Fifteen Chinese passengers are now in the Providence police station, while the authorities are searching for 20 more. It is believed they had been landed before the yacht was discovered. Two of the crew were arrested.

HUNG ON FENCE

HORSE COULDN'T JUMP WELL WITH WAGON.

Lyman Ware Finds Animal in Serious Predicament and Has to Hoist It Free.

After running down the pavement for two blocks at breakneck speed pulling a light wagon after it, a horse belonging to Lyman Ware, an Illinois Central machinist, of Jefferson street, tried to jump an iron fence at Jackson and Thirteenth streets, but got hung up and the owner had to secure a hoist to lift the animal free from the iron pickets to prevent serious injury.

Ware called on Mr. Ed Wheeler at Tennessee and Thirteenth streets. He left the horse hitched but when he started to leave no horse was visible. He started on a search and found it half across the iron fence two squares away.

NOT FOR HEARST

JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS WILL NOT STUMP NEW YORK.

Agrees to Speak in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware on This One Condition.

Washington, Oct. 11.—John Sharp Williams, the Mississippi statesman, now en route from the south, at the invitation of the Democratic congressional committee, will stump in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware. One condition imposed by him when he consented to enter the campaign, was that he was not to be asked to make any speeches in New York state. Williams has no cordial feeling for Hearst.

JUMPS TRACK

AND KILLS OR FATALLY IN- JURES TRAINMEN.

Iron Mountain Fast Mail, Making Up Time, Meets With Catastrophe at Carondelet.

St. Louis, Oct. 11.—The Iron Mountain fast mail, leaving here at 2:25 this morning, pulled out a half hour late, and in making up time at Carondelet, jumped the rails, killing Peter Rafferty, fireman, of this city, and fatally injuring Engineer Casper and Mail Clerk Judson and Martin, all of St. Louis. Several other mail clerks and trainmen were injured. No passengers were carried on the train.

KILLED TRYING TO CATCH BALL.

Player Near Rolla, Mo., Meets Instant Death by Colliding With Another.

Rolla, Mo., Oct. 11.—In a baseball game near here two young players named McKee and Clark, collided while trying to catch a fly ball. McKee was instantly killed and Clark was unconscious for some time. Clark's teeth were imbedded in McKee's skull and broken off.

Policeman Shoots Saloonkeeper. Chicago, Oct. 11.—David Allman, a saloonkeeper, was shot twice by Policeman Crowley in front of his saloon early this morning. The shooting followed Crowley's attempt to close Allman's saloon. Allman is seriously wounded.

KILLING FROST VISITS PADUCAH

Ground White This Mornin' And Fog on River.

Crops Are Hurt In Many Places and Indiana Has Ice—Tobacco Damaged.

VETERAN FREEZES TO DEATH.

There is no question about the frost last night. Moderately early risers saw the sparkle of it on the grass this morning and the air was full of its sharp twang. Little damage was done, because precautions were taken. The frost was especially hard on tomatoes and sweet potatoes. What hay was on the ground will be burned up by the sun playing on the heavy frost. The temperature fell to 32 this morning.

Big Nut Crop.

This is the first time, among the many times in the year, when the small boy grows restive under school restraint. The killing frost last night will bring hickory nuts down in great quantities today and from now on. The woods will be filled Saturday. If the boy waits till then, with nutting parties. The delicious "scaly barks" will receive first attention but later on the big and less delightful "hog" nuts will be gathered. The nut crop this year is plentiful. Already many have fallen and many more will come down for the shaking. The woods immediately around the city will be stripped clean in less than no time, and then the hunters will go deep into the forests.

Ice at Petersburg.

Petersburg, Ind., Oct. 11.—Heavy frost here this morning. Ice an eighth of an inch thick was formed. Late corn is badly damaged. Garden truck is ruined.

Tobacco Hurt.

Paris, Ky., Oct. 11.—Yesterday's snow storm was succeeded by a killing frost this morning. Many farmers were not through cutting tobacco. Chances for the standing crop are ruined.

Veteran Freezes to Death.

Cleveland, Oct. 11.—John Reese, a veteran of the civil war, who lived alone, had no fire and was frozen to death last night.

Heavy Loss Feared.

Norfolk, Oct. 11.—The temperature here today was four degrees above freezing. Colder weather tonight may cut off the fall crops, causing thousands of dollars loss to the big truckers in this belt.

Spanish War Veterans.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Captain Hamilton Ward, of Buffalo, was elected today commander in chief of the United Spanish War Veterans. The next encampment will be held at Oklahoma City, Okla.

WATER CONTRACT

WILL BE CONSIDERED BY THE COUNCIL TONIGHT.

Lower Board Is Called Together By Mayor Yeiser to Hear Report of Committee.

The board of councilmen has been called by Mayor Yeiser to meet tonight at 7 o'clock to consider the report of the joint light and water committee on the proposed contract with the Paducah Water company to supply water for fire plugs. The contract already has been ratified by the board of aldermen.

Mr. Maurice Nash, of Louisville, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Nash.

NO SIDETRACKING CITY OF PADUCAH

Is Too Important To Illinois Central System.

General Manager Rawn Says the "Cut Off" Is No Longer Contemplated By Road.

HERE IN HIS PRIVATE CAR.

I. G. Rawn, general manager of the Illinois Central railroad, in an interview with a representative of The Sun, said: "Paducah is too important ever to be put on a sidetrack of the Illinois Central railroad."

Mr. Rawn made that answer to the inquiry whether the cut-off would be built from Gilbertsville to Mayfield, virtually placing Paducah on a sidetrack.

The interview was had in General Manager Rawn's private car at the union passenger station this morning. The questions and answers were as follows:

"We are very much interested, Mr. Rawn in the suggested cut-off from Gilbertsville to Mayfield, which virtually would place Paducah on a sidetrack. Will you make a statement for the railroad?"

"There is nothing being done now in the matter," said Mr. Rawn.

"Am I to infer that you mean Paducah will always have as efficient service as at present, from the Illinois Central?"

"Paducah is too important ever to be put on a sidetrack of the Illinois Central railroad. We appreciate the business we get out of the city and it is too important to be sidetracked. There was some consideration a while back of building a cut-off from Gilbertsville to Mayfield, but that is not being considered now. Even if the cut-off should be built, it would not effect our service to Paducah, but there is nothing being done in that matter at all."

"Are there any changes and improvements proposed in the system that would interest Paducah?"

"We practically are through with our year's work and it has been a very successful one for us. Of course, the southern storm damaged us some, but it is normal there now."

Besides General Manager Rawn's private car, H. C. McCourt's private car also was in the train. Mr. McCourt is the general superintendent of southern lines of the Illinois Central. Both came up from Memphis on No. 102 at 11:20 o'clock this morning with Louisville as their destination.

Mr. J. T. Donovan, agent in this city for the Illinois Central, and L. E. McCabe, trainmaster, met the two higher officers of the company at the passenger station and talked briefly about the condition of the road in this city.

MR. BELL SUFFERING.

Fifteen Shot Taken Out of His Epidermis.

Mr. Richard Bell, who made a noise like a wolf yesterday morning, and was shot by Spencer Young, a thoroughly frightened negro farm hand, is lying in bed today. The doctors yesterday picked out fifteen shot from his lower limbs and the shock made the victim ill. Bell will not be able to get about for several days.

REGISTRATION DAY TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16. SIX TO NINE O'CLOCK.

The special supplemental registration day will be Tuesday, October 16, from 6 a. m. to 9 p. m. All those who have not a registration, issued October 1, certificate must register next Tuesday if they would vote at the municipal election. Besides the issue of endorsing the conduct of the Republican general council and school board, there is a police judge to elect, the issue in which race will be tightly drawn. Also the park bond issue of $100,000 and the city water contract are to be voted on. All voters are urged to register and express their preference and opinions. They should register early as the political organizations will have their hands full looking after the electoral ones.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION SELECTS A CITY TICKET

Meets At City Hall This After- noon at 2 O'clock And Nominates

City Judge And Boards. Large Attend- ance And All Wards Are Represented

HARMONY PREVAILS THROUGHOUT

Capt. Ed Farley, on account of the absence of the county committee chairman, and by request of the members of the party, called the Republican city convention to order at 2 o'clock.

Capt. Ed Farley was elected chairman. C. W. Merriweather, colored, was made secretary.

A committee on resolutions was appointed as follows: Messrs. Earl Palmer, E. E. Bell, Geo. O. McBroom, E. R. Miller and Robt. McClure, the latter colored. The committee retired to draft resolutions. Capt. Farley made the following speech of thanks: "Gentlemen of the Convention:

"I thank you for the honor conferred upon me by thus selecting me to preside over this meeting.

"We have met, as stated by the call, for the purpose of nominating candidates to be voted for at the November election to fill various offices in the city. That you will act wisely in the selection of the men may go without question, for it has been the policy of the Republican party to put her best men to the front and exact of them good and faithful service. Judging the future by the past the people of Paducah may rest secure in the belief that the city's affairs will be managed intelligently and honestly by the men of your selection.

"Under Republican management for the last two years your city has prospered as it never has before. There have been inaugurated improvements which have challenged the admiration of all the citizens at home, and have elicited many favorable comments from abroad, and this, too, at a minimum cost. Not one dollar has been misappropriated; the expenses have always been kept within bounds; law and order have been enforced; your taxes have been reduced, in short, peace and prosperity have gone hand in hand with civic improvement.

"Let us continue in the work by nominating good men; men of good business qualifications and men in whom the people will continue to have confidence."

The committee on resolutions reported and the report was unanimously adopted.

Nominations for city judge were declared in order.

Will H. Farley nominated Hon. E. W. Bagby and Col. John J. Dorian seconded it. Judge Bagby was nominated unanimously. Judge Bagby thanked the convention in a graceful speech. He stated that should he be elected he would discharge the duties as prescribed by law.

Mr. Sam Hubbard's motion to appoint a committee of five to prepare a list of names for aldermen, councilmen and school trustees carried. Any one in the convention was accorded the privilege of suggesting names for any office. The committee was appointed as follows: Messrs. Sam Hubbard, L. L. Bebout, B. S. Robertson, John Williamson, Jr., and George Harvey, the latter colored.

Postmaster Frank Fisher and Judge Bagby urged the duty of registering next Tuesday between the hours of 6 a. m. and 9 p. m.

The committee on nominations reported at 2:50 o'clock as follows: For Aldermen—E. E. Bell, O. B. Starks, J. C. Farley and W. T. Miller. They were unanimously accepted.

For Councilmen—First ward, John J. Bebout; Second, George Oehlschlaeger; Third, H. S. Wells; Fourth, Henry Katterjohn, long term; J. S. Johnston, short term; Fifth, S. A. Hill; Sixth, R. S. Barnett. They were nominated without objection.

For School Trustees—First ward, J. J. Gentry; Second, J. K. Bonduant; Third, H. E. Hoover; Fourth, Dr. C. G. Warner; Fifth, John Murray, and Enoch Yarbrough; Sixth, Capt. Ed Farley.

The convention was a representative one, and the interest in it keen. The Democrats as well as the Republicans consider the ticket named as a sure winner at the election, and for that reason there were many Democrats on hand to see who were the nominees. In the crowd were Mayor Yeiser, and Dave Cross, Democratic candidate for police judge.

Judge Bagby's nomination was popular, and the Democrats present, joined in the applause he received after making an address.

Dr. H. F. Williamson refused to permit his name to be presented for nomination in the school board.

The Log Cabin was adopted as the emblem.

The campaign committee was called to meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the office of the Paducah Builders' association in Legal Row.

The Resolutions. Following are the resolutions adopted:

We, the Republicans of the city of Paducah, in mass convention assembled, declare our adherence to the principles of the Republican party as set forth in recent state and national platforms and exemplified in the highest degree by the administration of our matchless leader, President Theodore Roosevelt.

WILL SAVE OIL.

New invention for piston packing is patented.

What promises to revolutionize piston packing in locomotives is an invention by John Petty, a machinist employed in the Illinois Central shops and a son-in-law of Capt. Frank Harlan, of the police force.

Petty worked in the south until a year ago when he removed here.
While in Gulfport he conceived the idea of a packing rim for engine pistons, which will save oil and will not necessitate packing half as often as the triple part ring now in use. He has successfully demonstrated his device and has it patented in the patent office.

SECRETARY COONS

Resigns Several Positions in Organizations.

The secretary of the Commercial club, D. W. Coons, has tendered his resignation to President Phillips, of the Paducah Driving club, as secretary, and to President John S. Blacker, of the Chautauque association, as secretary of the association, and to W. L. Bower, vice president of the McCracken County Farmers' Institute as treasurer of that institute.
This course has been pursued owing to the great amount of work developing on the secretary, and the desire to get in shape to do effective work in the immigration movement.

ing all our faculties and sensations.

Danville Is Safe.

Danville will have a league baseball club next season, this being decided by the success of a carnival just closed in that city. "Jack" Wortham, manager of the Kitty league team, at that city, conceived the idea of giving a carnival to pay off debts owed by the baseball association and the net proceeds were nearly $1,000; enough to settle all accounts and assure the fans a team next season. Already the management is looking about for players and will have a crack team next se-son.

Paducah will have a representative delegation at the convention of the Ohio Valley Improvement association at Portsmouth, O., October 17 and 18, if the delegates chosen attend.

At a recent meeting of the general council $200 were appropriated to defray the expenses of the delegation, and today Mayor Yeiser announced the delegates as follows: Maj. J. H.
Ashcraft, Capt. Mark Cole, Capt.
Saunders Fowler and H. A. Patter.

Mayor Yeiser is now considering the appointment of a successor to the late R. G. Caldwell, member of the board of tax book supervisors. It has been a difficult matter to secure the right kind of a man, because of the unpleasantness engendered by complaining property holders, but the mayor has been intent on securing the services of a capable man.

Park Bond Election.
Mayor Yeiser has signed the ordinance, providing for the park bond election. The ordinance provides for a vote to be taken this fall on the issue of $100,000 in park improvement bonds.

RAILROAD NOTES

Freight Congestion.
Chicago, Oct. 11.—The congestion of freight has increased so within the last few days that the railroad officials fear they are soon to be face to face with a blockade. Conditions on the eastern roads, which not only have to handle the business which they originate, but have the crops of the west pouring upon them for export, are naturally the worst, but those on the western lines also are rapidly becoming extremely serious.
With the approach of winter the movement of coal has swiftly grown heavier, aggravating the congested conditions which already existed.

All the force in the Paducah I. C.
shop was called out yesterday to put up stoves and they put up 25.
The cold snap made immediate action
in this line necessary and stoves were put up in depots, freight houses and in all departments of the road. Even caboose were fitted out and today
the gang is putting in stoves in flag shanties and in construction gang boarding cars. About 600 joints of pipe were sent to the Nashville and Memphis divisions of the road for cabooses and equipping station houses
with stoves.

Today a special train will run from Nashville to Princeton on the Nashville division of the Illinois Central road bearing I. C. Rawn, general manager of the road, and H. McCourt, superintendent of southern lines of the Illinois Central. They are on an inspection tour of the southern divisions looking after the coal situation
particularly on the Paducah district.
Mr. Rawn will not come to Paducah
this trip.

Supt. A. H. Egan and Roadmaster
F. L. Thompson of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, are in Paducah today.

Mr. S. J. Lawshee, traveling auditor for the Illinois Central, was in the city today on business.

Master Mechanic R. J. Turnbull has returned from Nashville, where he had been on business.

Passing of Time.

Senator Platt on his 72nd birthday was being congratulated by some reporters at the Oriental Hotel at Manhattan Beach.

"Life," said the senator, "is a fleeting thing. The longest life passes like a dream. Nothing is so amazing, so bewildering, as time's swift flight."

He smiled.

"Imagine," he said, "how impressed with time's flight old Henry Skerritt of Oswego was. Henry ran away from his family a year after his marriage. That was about 1880, and a few months ago, taking up a local paper in Chicago, the deserter read
in the 'personal' column:

"If Henry Skeritt, who twenty-three years ago deserted his poor wife and babe, will return home, said babe will be glad to knock the starling out of him."

There is no earthly hope for the man who glories in his reputation as a liar.

REVENGE OF CUBS MOST COMPLETE

Knock Pitcher White Out Of The Box.

Nationals Take Second Game From Americans by Decisive Score of 7 to 1.

WEATHER TOO COLD FOR PLAY.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—In the second game of the world's championship series the Chicago Nationals took decisive revenge for yesterday's defeat vanquishing the "White Stockings" on the latter's grounds by the score of 7 to 1.

White and Owen, who replaced White in the fourth inning, were batted freely and the American leaguer's errors also helped to increase the National's score. Reulbach on the contrary was in form and allowed the opposing batsmen only two hits.
The weather was bitter cold.

The Nationals started the trouble in the second inning. Captain Chance received an ovation as he stepped to the plate, but failed to hit three good ones. Then Steinfeldt, late of Cincinnati, sent a scorching single to left Tinker laid down a perfect bunt and beat it to first. Steinfeldt reaching second.

Evers rolled an easy one down to Isbell, who in his haste to make a double play tossed the ball into left field. Steinfeldt scored. Tinker took third and Evers perched securely on second. White deliberately allowed Kling to walk, but Reulbach sacrificed Tinker home and Evers scored a moment later on Hoffman's safe drive. Kling, however, was out at the plate. The half closed with three runs over the plate and enthusiasm of the National supporters broke loose with vigor which took no thought of sore throats. The next run for the Nationals came when Chance was safe on a fielder's choice.

He stole second and went to third when Isbell failed to hold Sullivan's bad throw. He scored when Steifeldt rapped out the second "clean single."

The American's lone tally came in the fifth when Dougherty reached first on a fielder's choice. He took second on a wild pitch and scored when Tannehill's grounder went past Tinker who was confused by the base runner. The "White Stockings" never even threatened again except when Jones reached second on his own hit and reached third on an out.
Donohue, however, flied out to left and Jones was caught yards from the plate by Sheekard's perfect throw.

In the sixth two singles, a double steal by Tinker and Evers, and Sullivan's wild throw to third, the ball rolling into the crowd, let Tinker across the plate. In the eighth two more tallies resulted from Chance's single, Steinfeldt's sacrifice, Chance's pretty steal of third and Tinker's single, which brought in Chance.
Tinker stole second went to third on an out and came home on a wild pitch.

Steinfeldt's batting and Reulbach's pitching were easily the features of the game.

Mayor Yeiser is now considering
the appointment of a successor to the late R. G. Caldwell, member of the board of tax book supervisors. It has been a difficult matter to secure the right kind of a man, because of the unpleasantness engendered by complaining property holders, but the mayor has been intent on securing
the services of a capable man.

Park Bond Election.
Mayor Yeiser has signed the ordinance, providing for the park bond
election. The ordinance provides for a vote to be taken this fall on the issue of $100,000 in park improvement bonds.

RAILROAD NOTES

Freight Congestion.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—The congestion
of freight has increased so within the last few days that the railroad officials fear they are soon to be face
to face with a blockade. Conditions
on the eastern roads, which not only have to handle the business which they originate, but have the crops of
the west pouring upon them for export, are naturally the worst, but those on the western lines also are rapidly becoming extremely serious.
With the approach of winter the
movement of coal has swiftly grown
heavier, aggravating the congested conditions which already existed.

All the force in the Paducah I. C.
shop was called out yesterday to put up stoves and they put up 25.
The cold snap made immediate action
in this line necessary and stoves were put up in depots, freight houses and in all departments of the road. Even caboose were fitted out and today
the gang is putting in stoves in flag
shanties and in construction gang boarding cars. About 600 joints of pipe were sent to the Nashville and Memphis divisions of the road for ca-
booses and equipping station houses
with stoves.

Today a special train will run from Nashville to Princeton on the Nashville division of the Illinois Central road bearing I. C. Rawn, general manager of the road, and H. McCourt,
superintendent of southern lines of the Illinois Central. They are on an inspection tour of the southern divisions looking after the coal situation
particularly on the Paducah district.
Mr. Rawn will not come to Paducah
this trip.

Supt. A. H. Egan and Roadmaster
F. L. Thompson of the Louisville
division of the Illinois Central, are
in Paducah today.

Mr. S. J. Lawshee, traveling auditor for the Illinois Central, was in the city today on business.

Master Mechanic R. J. Turnbull has returned from Nashville, where he had been on business.

Passing of Time.

Senator Platt on his 72nd birthday was being congratulated by some reporters at the Oriental Hotel at Manhattan Beach.

"Life," said the senator, "is a fleeting thing. The longest life passes
like a dream. Nothing is so amazing,
so bewildering, as time's swift flight."

He smiled.

"Imagine," he said, "how impressed with time's flight old Henry Skerritt of Oswego was. Henry ran away
from his family a year after his marriage. That was about 1880, and a few months ago, taking up a local paper in Chicago, the deserter read
in the 'personal' column:

"If Henry Skeritt, who twenty-
three years ago deserted his poor
wife and babe, will return home, said
babe will be glad to knock the starling out of him."

There is no earthly hope for the man who glories in his reputation as a liar.

Get Well Acquainted With The Mutual Life

It has been in existence sixty-three years. Public confidence and patronage have made it and kept it the largest and staunchest Life Insurance company in the world. It is owned by its policyholders. It protects thousands, but there are many others who should have the same protection. How about you? People who are so thoughtful and kind as to wish to provide as they can to-day for what will happen some other day, when they are taken from those they love and support, should get acquainted with

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

Let them read its history; analyze its statements; examine its investments; consult its agents. They will find a reason for its strength and stability and a reason for their confidence and patronage.

The new management of the Mutual Life has been in control for nine months. Its report for the first six months will be mailed to anyone on request, or may be had of its agents. It tells what has been accomplished in conformity with the new Insurance Law; shows the vast reductions, and indicates the unusual advantages yet to reach its policyholders. Its plain figures, given in a plain way, will convince any fair-minded person that The Mutual Life to-day justifies the good opinion of Bishop Chas. C.
McCabe, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who recently said:

"After long and careful consideration, I am thoroughly satisfied that the present administrations of both companies (the New York Life and the Mutual Life) are now effecting great economies and reforms, and that these institutions, purged as by fire, are now in a position to afford the protection of life insurance in better form, and on better terms, than any known in the past."

It justifies also the good opinion of Mr. James C. Colgate and his associates, who, having policies to the amount of $3,000,000 in the Mutual Life, recently "resolved that the present executive officers and trustees are, in the opinion of the Policyholders' Protective Association of the Mutual Life, faithful to its interests, and that their administration of its affairs has been and is efficient, economical and beneficial to the policyholders."

Insurance, or wish information concerning any form of

The Board Assesses For Storm Water Sewers.

Bitulihic Street Work in Down Town Section Is Formally Ac- cepted at Meeting.

COAL FOR LIGHT PLANT

The board of public works meting with Aldermen Miller and Palmer and Councilmen Oehlschlaeger and Katterjohn, the joint sewerage committee, decided yesterday afternoon that property owners shall pay part of the costs of storm water sewers on streets accepted by the board yesterday. These are Jefferson street, Broadway and Kentucky avenue from First street to Ninth street, exclusive of Jefferson street from First street to Second street. Solicitor James Campbell in an opinion rendered to the board yesterday stated that Broadway was sewered by ordinance at the city's expense, as was Kentucky avenue from First to Second street, and it is a question if the property owners can be held responsible.

City Engineer L. A. Washington in making out the estimates for the street improvement work, was instructed to pro rate the costs of sewers to the property owners. In regard to Jefferson street from First street to Second street, Dr. J. Q. Taylor, Councilman Katterjohn and Alderman Palmer were appointed as a committee to confer with property owners and see if they will agree to stand part of the sewer expense.

The West Kentucky Coal company secured the contract for furnishing coal to the city lighting plant for the ensuing year at $1.15 per ton weighed on its own scales and $1.40 if weighed on city scales. The other bidder was the Central Coal & Iron company at $1.25 per ton.

The matter of repairing the old steam street roller was referred. Engineer John Holmes offered the city $100 for it, the price the city paid the bankrupt firm of American Road Roller company, whose trustee disposed of the roller in preference to shipping it away.

A petition for an electric light at Meyers and Clements streets was filed.

The traction company was ordered to repair switches and curves at Ninth street and Broadway, Ninth street and Tennessee streets and Langstaff avenue. The gravel is said not to be up to contract.

The traction company was granted the privilege of putting up new poles over the city and taking down old ones.

A report of the committee selected to locate lights was filed. The locations were ratified.

Arthur Jones was rented bunch, No. 55, at the market to sell fish.

The Palmer Hotel company was instructed to put iron grating over openings at the head of basement windows for the protection of pedestrians.

The street department was ordered to clear away debris at Seventh street and Kentucky avenue.

Contractors were ordered to open Maiden alley on Broadway. It is blocked with material and debris, where a building is being raised.

The traction company was granted the privilege of putting in new curves at Fourth and Third streets and Kentucky avenue. The company will have to sign up all papers necessary for the protection of the city in keeping the streets in repair.

The board ordered Street Inspect-

S. A. Fowler was ordered to move back his fence on Broadway near Seventh street.

Fletcher Terrell was ordered to move back a fence on Kentucky avenue near Sixth street.

The board formally accepted the street work on Jefferson street, Second street to Ninth; Kentucky avenue from First street to Ninth street; Broadway from Fifth street to Ninth street, and side streets from Kentucky avenue to Jefferson street as follows: Sixth, Seventh and Ninth streets.

The board will hereafter require all contractors to secure permission from the board to close streets or alleys.

The engineer was instructed to advertise for bids for improving Clay street from Seventeenth street to Nineteenth street and Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets behind Oak Grove cemetery.

The matter of inspecting a street near the Rottgering farm built by E. C. Terrell was deferred.

Keeping a Big Brewery Clean

Pabst Never Brews Beer on Saturday—Immense Plant, Always Clean, Gets Weekly Scrubbing.

Scrub-day at the brewery! Readers of The Sun didn't know there is such a day, did you? Well, there is at the big Pabst brewery in Milwaukee and it is nothing but "scrub-day." You might be surprised to see how thoroughly the cleaning is done and to know that on scrub-day no other work is attempted anywhere in the brewery, except in the shipping department, of course, for the work there never ceases.

Saturday is the Pabst scrub-day all the year 'round. If you were to visit the brewery on any Friday and were told that on the following day the vast plant would be shut down for cleaning, you would say, "I don't see any reason why it should be, for it is clean now." Yes, that's so. The Pabst brewery is always clean—clean as the cleanest kitchen—because it is kept clean. The Pabst process of brewing beer is a perfectly clean process. But the weekly scrub-day is considered by Pabst an additional and important feature of the keeping always clean process. It is part of the enormous price paid for the absolute cleanness of Pabst Blue Ribbon—the best beer ever brewed.

Not a jekle boll, not a pint of beer is brewed in the great Pabst plant on Saturdays. In all parts of the brewery the cleaners are at work with scrub brush and water. The walls and floors of cement and brick, every foot of space, every nook and corner from the great cellars below the ground to the top of the five and six-story buildings, is cleaned until it fairly shines. The very extreme of care is shown in cleaning and rinsing the brew kettles, vats and pipes—nothing but pure water, pumped to the reservoirs at the top of the brew-house and great storage warehouses and then filtered, being used.

This weekly cleaning is so thorough that we can not even attempt to describe its effectiveness, and when you stop to consider that it represents merely a part of the Pabst watchfulness against any possibility of contamination or impurity in Pabst Beer then you will understand why we say Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer is the cleanest beer brewed. It is the purest beer and the richest in food value, too, because made only from Pabst exclusive eight-day malt, choicest imported hops and pure water. Money and skill cannot buy or produce better ingredients. Pabst exclusive eight-day malt, grown slowly and naturally from finest barley, retains all the food value of the barley in its undigested form, and makes Pabst Beer the most nourishing, most refreshing beer in the world.

Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer, the choicest of all bottled beers, perfect in age, purity and strength, is the beer for the home.

STATE PRINTING COMMISSIONERS

Meet at Lexington to Frame New Laws.

Kentucky Synod of Southern Presbyterian Church in Session at Henderson.

WOODFORD COUNTY CONTEST

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 11.—The members of the State Printing Commission arrived here this evening and will meet for a business session tomorrow morning. The members of the commission are Senators Albert Charlton, of Louisville; Brent Spence, of Newport; J. W. Newman, of Versailles; L. P. Head, of Paducah; L. W. Arnett, of Covington; and N. H. Southall, of Hopkinsville, the last three being members of the house of representatives. The present laws relating to the state printing are contradictory and unsatisfactory and the commission expects to prepare laws which will prevent any possibility of graft or excessive charges in the state's printing.

Chairman Head said this evening: "We will get busy tomorrow morning. We arrived today and saw some of the trotting races, but did no business."

The meeting will be held here simply because it is a convenient point for all of the members of the commission.

The Kentucky Synod.

Henderson, Ky., Oct. 11.—The Kentucky synod of the Southern Presbyterian church met here tonight for five days' session. About one hundred and twenty-five delegates are in attendance. The features of tonight's session were the sermon by Rev. S. D. Boggs and the naming of officers for the meeting. The officers are as follows: Rev. A. S. Moffett, Lebanon, moderator; Rev. W. M. Irvine, Bowling Green, reading clerk; Rev. S. D. Boggs, Catlettsburg, retiring moderator; Rev. L. O. Spencer, Elizabethtown, and Rev. Dr. L. H. Blanton, chancellor, of Central University, stated clerks.

Judge Adair in Second.

Dawson, Ky., Oct. 11.—The Second district Republican convention which assembled here today nominated Judge John S. Adair, of Hancock county, for congress from the Second district. The vote stood as follows: Judge Adair, ninety; Paul M. Moore, of Hopkins county, eighty-two.

Contest Election.

Versailles, Ky., Oct. 11.—A contest of the local option election held in this county, including Versailles, September 20, last, has been filed in the Woodford county court. The county went dry.

MORE CARS THAN USUAL.

Coal Dealers Expect to Handle Product Rapidly.

There is a general stir in coal circles both in the city and on the railroads, and all interest is centered in the supply of fuel this winter. The mine operators say that they will handle coal this season better than they have in years, the railroads having secured more rolling stock. The Illinois Central has in nearly 100 new convertible ballast cars and these are assigned to the Paducah district of the road. Daily three sections of "turn around" coal trains leave Paducah for the mines and return at night with long strings of loaded coal cars. Paducah gets her share and the dealers have been working all teams possible to secure even at night in handling the output from the mines. Coal houses are being filled and every one is preparing for the winter.

WILL HEAR REPORT.

Retail Druggists Meet at City Hall Friday.

The Retail Druggists' association will meet Friday afternoon at the city hall to hear a report from Bico Wallace who was the Paducah delegate to the annual convention held last week at Atlanta, Ga.

"The meeting was one of the most successful held; the association increasing in membership and doing excellent work," Mr. Wallace stated.

This is the first year the Paducah druggists have organized and there are about 20 members of the local association.

Daily Thought.

"History makes its records in straight lines, which are drawn ruthlessly across human plans and follies."

A CITIZEN'S TICKET.

The Sun endorses the Republican city ticket from top to bottom and congratulates the delegates to today's convention for a work well done. It is evident from the make-up of the ticket that the best interest of all classes, the party and the city have been consulted, and there was a spirit of victory in the air this afternoon that had back of it something more than party regularity. The ticket goes before the suffragists of Paducah, not merely the bid of the Republican party for favors, but as representing the views of a considerable body of the citizenship of the city, who have no theories to exploit, no private ends to subvert and no concessions to make to any distinct class as opposed to the general welfare.

This is a straight, out, and out ticket, containing the names of candidates for municipal boards, which stand for nothing save honest business methods, and headed by a man, who is known the city over for good judgment, conservatism and moral worth. The Hon. E. W. Bagby is a candidate at the solicitation of citizens, who ask that the city judge be free from the suspicion of obligation to any element. That is an important thing for the voters to consider this fall.

It was a wise thing, too, for the convention today to proffer the nomination to the members of the boards, whose terms expire. These men have served the city faithfully and well. They have advanced its interests always, and no color of wrong has been attached to any of their proceedings. It was due to the citizens of Paducah that the men, whom the people chose and who have proven true to their trusts should be returned to office. Those men chosen to fill vacancies are well and favorably known in their wards. This is a Republican ticket, to be sure, because it was selected at a Republican convention; but that is a name only. These men have been tried and they have never in a single instance put party advancement before the city's interests.

There are radicals for reform and radicals for vice, but good common sense that leads men to investigate before they judge, to consider facts and possibilities before they act, and then undertake only that which is practicable, in a spirit at once pure and conservative, is an element to be esteemed in the composition of the body politic, and it is of this element that the ticket nominated today is most thoroughly representative. There is no body of citizens in Paducah today that can say this general council has ever ignored it. There is nobody can claim the distinction of special recognition.

The Hon. E. W. Bagby does not enter the race pledged to any preposterous deeds of valor in righting imaginary wrongs and grievances. He simply promises to invoke the kind of justice that is blind to the personal side of all cases coming before him.

It is time to blot out party lines in municipal affairs. These candidates to positions on the city boards have been tried and found capable and faithful. The candidate for city judge stands for righteous enforcement of the law. The offices all are legislative and judicial and their incumbents could not, if they would, exercise the functions of their offices to build up a party machine. So, they can bid for the support of good citizens of all parties, free from doubt as to their motives.

Rural New Yorkers will be disappointed if Hearst doesn't send them something just as good as the Yellow Kid and Foxy Grandpa. Hearst's "cold blue eye" winking solidly on the canvas and his voice in a "can" will hardly serve to stimulate the interest of the readers of the New York Journal and American. If Hearst falls down before his own audience, it will be because he has created an appetite for "hot stuff" that ever demands something hotter. Hearst can thank the fates that no other publisher in New York owns as vicious sheets or would stoop to such methods as he, else his patrons might get some of that "hot stuff" after which they yearn.

Two members of one Kentucky family are dead as the result of eating toadstools instead of mushrooms, and another Kentuckian swallowed paris green in mistake for sulphur. It is no trouble at all for doctors to distinguish the effects of these articles on the stomach, but their observations usually are of more timely interest to the coroner than to the patient. It is a trifle annoying at times, of course, not to have an expert at your elbow to show you which is nourishing and which is not, but it is always bad form to leave the decision to a postmortem investigation.

Kaiser Wilhelm goes the Vanderbilt cup one better. He gets up a game of tag between automobiles and balloons. We all know the automobile can beat the mechanical world at playing tag.

NEW AIRSHIP ON NOVEL LINE'S

Milwaukee Inventor Device Without Wings or Balloon.

Milwaukee, Oct. 11.—Jacob C. Miller, a mechanic at the West Milwaukee shops, has invented a new kind of airship. It differs radically from all others thus far exploited. Miller dispenses with both wings and balloon, also with engines. The flight is regulated by a series of funnels of aluminum. The small ends are upmost and closed. Gasoline mixed with air is admitted to the funnels, and when sparked the explosion which follows comes directly against the atmosphere. The lifting power is dependent on the number of the funnels and the rapidity of the explosions.

SUMMERSIDE BURNING.

Capital of Prince Edward Island Is Doomed.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 11.—Summerside, the capital of Prince Edward Island, is in flames. The entire town appears doomed. The town is the most prosperous on the island. The population is 5,000. The fire started in the railway depot and was fanned by a severe gale. Half the town was a roaring mass of flames within an hour. All surrounding towns sent aid.

Claim Notice.

McCracken Circuit Court, C. A. Isbell, plaintiff, vs. petition in equity, F. G. Rudolph, administrator of Addie Howell, deceased, etc., defendants. Ordered that this action be referred to Cecil Reed, master commissioner of McCracken Circuit Court to take proof of assets and liabilities of the estate of Addie Howell, deceased, and all persons having claims against said estate are required to properly verify and file the same, before said commissioner, on or before the 15th day of December, 1906, or they will be forever barred from asserting any claim against the assets in the hands of F. G. Rudolph, administrator of said estate unadministered; and all persons are hereby enjoined and restrained from collecting their claims against said estate except through this suit. Ordered that this order be published in the Paducah Daily Sun as required by law.

Given under my hand as Clerk of said court, this, the 11th day of October, 1906

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

afford an ample and a convincing guarantee for a similar administration of that department, for so long a time as the Republican party is continued in control of that branch of the city's government.

Resolve Second: That this convention stands for good government and pledges to the executive thereof the support of the legislative branch of the city's government in ridding the city of those flagrant vices, which have for so long a period haunted their colors in the faces of all respectable citizens.

Resolve Third: That this convention reaffirms as a cardinal principle of the Republican party, that the interest of capital and labor are identical and inseparable, and that each is entitled to an equal degree of protection under the law, to the end, that there be no oppression of labor nor confiscation of capital. But in common with the people of the whole country, we recognize the fact that inroads are being constantly attempted in many places by combinations of capital upon the rights of the confiding and unsuspecting people. We, therefore, favor the most rigid and careful scrutiny and examination of the terms and limitations of every franchise or concession granted to any such combination, not with the view of hampering or restricting legitimate enterprise and improvement, but for the purpose of properly discriminating between those corporations who seek to deprive the citizens of certain rights, for which no proper equivalent is returned, and those which honestly seek to serve the public, the interests of which we regard at all times to be paramount.

Resolve Fourth: That we believe that the administration of justice in our city court should not be influenced in any degree by the position or condition of the person appearing at its bar and we pledge the faith of this convention that justice will be so administered, should the candidate of the Republican party be chosen to occupy the honorable office of city judge.

Resolve Fifth: That we cherish the school system of this city above all other public institutions and pledge the support of the Republican party to its up-building and betterment, and in guarding against any and all influences that threaten to retard its progress or impede its growth.

SUNDAY FISHING IS NO CRIME

St. Louis Court Denies Woman's Plea for a Divorce.

St. Louis, Oct. 11.—Judge Foster today denied a divorce to Mrs. Carrie Fisher, who claimed that her husband went fishing every other Sunday. Judge Foster held that a man had a perfect right to go fishing every other Sunday if he did it in the proper time. Mrs. Fisher also averred that her husband said "damn it to her." "That is no ground for divorce," said Judge Fisher. "A man has the privilege of saying damn every day in the week if things go wrong."

Spanish War Veteran.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The United Spanish-American War Veterans today elected Captain Hamilton Ward, of Buffalo, N. Y., commander-in-chief; Henry Walsh, of Michigan, vice commander-in-chief; Father W. H. I. Reany, chaplain-in-chief, and as chief signal officer, C. Parker, of Georgia, was named. For chief mustering officer Charles F. Stroud, of Ohio, was selected. Oklahoma City, O. T., was selected as the place of holding the annual encampment of the organization next year.

MANY CIVIL CASES FOR OCTOBER TERM

Four Hundred and Sixty-Two Cases on Docket.

Mrs. Pink Head Prays for $25,000 Damages for Death of Her Husband—Hodge Cleared.

CIRCUIT COURT IS PREPARED

The docket for the civil term of McCracken circuit court has been finished and shows a total of 462 cases, 267 equity, and 175 law. There are many suits. The biggest case on the docket is that of Mrs. Pink Head against Cheatham, Hodge for $25,000 damages for the death of her husband. Hodge was last week cleared in Wickliffe of killing Head, and it is likely it will have some direct bearing on the case in this court.

Police Court.

Lizzie Henry, colored, was fined $5 and costs this morning in the police court for disorderly conduct. She took a picture away from another woman forcibly.

The Thompson Transfer company was presented for breach of ordinance, leaving a wagon standing in the street. The case was continued.

L. M. Stephenson was presented in three cases for selling cocaine contrary to the statutory provisions and the cases were continued on account of the absence of Attorney Hal Corbett for the defense.

Suits Filed.

Robinson Pettit company vs. W. R. Hays, for $86 on note.

C. A. Isbell vs. F. G. Rudolph, administrator of Addie Howell, $450 on a debt, asks to have the matter referred to master commissioner.

Mrs. Adelaide King yesterday filed a suit against Monroe King for divorce and $1,000 alimony. She alleges cruelty. The couple have been married since May 15.

Deeds Filed.

GRAFT

IN SMUGGLING CHINESE ACROSS OUR BORDERS.

Most Towns on New England Coast Are Fixed, According to Prisoner in Providence.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 11.—Eighteen Chinese arrested today after the capture by the United States immigration authorities of the schooner yacht Frolic, for which revenue cutters have been searching along the New England coast for the last two weeks, were held tonight by United States Commissioner Cross in $1,000 bail each for examination next Wednesday. All declared they had been in the United States before but that their certificates of residence had been lost, some in New York and others in the fire in San Francisco. This declaration contradicted a statement alleged to have been made by John C. Lehmann, of Boston, one of the men arrested for complicity in the smuggling operations that the Chinese brought by the Frolic from Newfoundland came to that country direct from China. In his cell Lehmann made statements which, if true, indicate that the smuggling of Chinese into the New England states has been carried on for years with great profit. He stated that an expedition like that of the Frolic netted about $15,000 clear of all expenses. Serious charges also were made by Lehmann in connection with the ease with which the Chinese can be landed on the shores of New England. Asked how the smugglers were able to evade the officials, he answered: "That's easy. Most places in New England are 'fixed' and we don't have any trouble."

Lehmann explained that the Chinese were brought from their native country to Canada.

HOPKINS IS BOOMING CANNON.

Senator Predicts Strong Support for Presidential Nomination.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Senator Hopkins is enthusiastic for Cannon as a presidential candidate. While it is not known that he discussed the speaker as the most available candidate in his talks with the president, the senator makes no attempt to disguise the fact that he regards Mr. Cannon as the probable nominee of his party two years hence. Mr. Hopkins is positive in his statements that Illinois will stand solidly for "Uncle Joe" and that he will have the support of a number of western delegates. Regarding the congressional elections, the senator would not be surprised should the Democrats carry one or two Chicago districts now represented by Republicans.

PAYS $250 FOR $10,000 RUBENS

Dispute Over Duty Discloses Find by South Bend Purchaser.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 11.—The neglect of a customs official on the Canadian border to claim duty on a supposed Rubens painting in the possession of M. Wetzstein, of this city, has led to a tempest in a teapot. Treasury Agent Keefe, of Chicago, arrived here today and the picture, said to be worth $10,000, was turned over to him by Mr. Wetzstein to show his good faith and willingness to pay the duty. At the time of purchase it was not known that the painting was a Rubens, and only $250 was paid for it.

BRIBERY CHARGE; JURORS HELD

Two Are Said to Have Accepted Money in $800,000 Will Case.

Boston, Oct. 11.—The fact that Matthew J. Killian and John W. Cronan, jurors who served in the contest over the will of Uriel K. Crocker, were indicted secretly last week on the charge of accepting bribes was announced today. The jury of which the men were members reported in favor of breaking the will disposing of an $800,000 estate, and the indictments allege that Killian and Cronan so voted because of money received by them. The men pleaded not guilty and were held for trial.

Drove First New Orleans Car.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 11.—Chas. H. Schenck, for many years treasurer of New Orleans and one of the oldest and most prominent financiers of the city, died today, aged about 70 years. He was born in Alsace-Lorraine and came to New Orleans nearly sixty years ago. He drove the first street car in this city and worked his way up from street car driver to a leading financier.

His Journey's End.

Erie, Pa., Oct. 11.—John Orso, of St. Louis, boarded the Lake Shore train at Cleveland last night en route to Buffalo, and at the conclusion of half the journey he swallowed carbolic acid and died here this morning.

How the Blood Flow Affects Health.

Few people appreciate the necessity of keeping the blood in every way in good condition if they would have good health.

There are two factors in disease, which, by an endless variety of chances and combinations define every departure from normal conditions.

These are the BLOOD and the NERVES. They sustain life, and END IT.

The blood must maintain a steady, swift and equal flow or bad consequences follow. Every organ and tissue must get its right share of blood, no more, no less. Stop it and the system is soon poisoned with accumulated body sewage, and lack of proper nourishment sets up, headaches, tired, worn out sensations, no life, no energy and other kindred ailments follow.

Right the blood flow, and they all leave.

This is the Osteopathic theory. It merely goes back to the beginning of disease. It finds most disease is associated with an abnormal blood flow.

Especially during the fall and winter months it is necessary to keep the blood flow right. Exercise of the right sort is a good stimulant for circulation, but the dry hot air treatment, followed by the Osteopathic treatments, which I am giving with such marked good results, is the best treatment yet discovered.

Why? Simply because they go to the basis.

Come to see me at any time and I can easily satisfy you that I can soon build up the run-down system, while you are attending to your usual duties. I shall, too, be pleased to refer you to people you know well who are enthusiastic in their praises of the treatments.

My office hours are from 8 to 12 a. m. and 3 to 4 p. m.

All liver colored, white points. Will sell cheap to close our business. W. E. Livers, Rose Clare, Ill.

LYNCHED AN INNOCENT MAN.

H. G. Blackman, the Negro, Told the Argenta Mob the Truth.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 11.—It now seems to be clearly established that when the meeting of four masked men overpowered Turkey Folson Davis and took H. G. Blackman, a negro from the Argenta city jail, Sunday night, strung him to a telegraph pole and afterwards filled his body with buckshot, it lynched an innocent negro, if the crime charged to him was taking part in the fusillade which killed John Lindsay and wounded his son, Milton Lindsay. Blackman's statement that he had been in Lake Village Saturday and did not reach Argenta until after the arrival of belated train No. 106-of the Valley division of the Iron Mountain Saturday night is corroborated by reputable citizens of Little Rock.

CONGRATULATES FARMERS OF STATE

On Chance to Hear Foster
Dwight Coburn.

He Stands for All That is Best in the Science of Agriculture in Practice.

WILL SPEAK AT INSTITUTE.

Concerning Foster Dwight Coburn, of Kansas, who is to address the farmers of southwestern Kentucky at the institute in this city October 18, 19 and 20, the Courier-Journal says editorially:

Kentucky farmers are to be congratulated upon their opportunity to hear a lecture by Foster Dwight Coburn, of Kansas. Mr. Coburn has a conception of farming very different from that of many landowners. He believes that the agriculturist is in partnership with nature and not at war with her. He knows as much about the science of agriculture, as contradistinguished from the mere business of farming, as any other man in the United States, and he knows that the application of scientific methods to the agricultural problem results not only in increased returns from the soil, but also in the conversion of farming from drudgery punctuated by discouragements to one of the most satisfactory and remunerative occupations. The marvelous agricultural resources of this country have not yet been appreciated by farmers, and cannot be appreciated or taken full advantage of until a greater amount of brain work and special knowledge are more generally applied to a business that may prove remunerative to the man who prosecutes it without any special training and along unscientific lines, but which offers far greater opportunities to the better-equipped. It has not been so many years ago that a great many worthy persons had no very high opinion of the minister who had to go to college to learn to preach the gospel, and formerly it was considered about as well for a young man to read law or medicine in the office of an established practitioner as to get his training at a university. We have finally arrived at the stage of enlightenment which causes it to be generally recognized that the farmer should also be especially educated for his life work.

Mr. Coburn is a writer of textbooks upon farming and has been a practical farmer for forty years or more. He possesses a happy combination of scientific knowledge and the rare quality of mind that is, curiously enough, called "common sense." Mr. Coburn did not, as stated in news dispatches, "come into prominence by refusing to accept an appointment as United States senator to succeed Burton." He was prominent years ago as the author of a famous classic "An Ode to the Kansas Hen," and many other choice bits of the literature of the soil. Declining to give up his connection with the agricultural interests of the Sunflower state and preferring to hold the comparatively inconspicuous office of secretary of the Kansas state board of agriculture was merely an incident in the career of Mr. Coburn, although it was a nine-days' wonder in Washington where breathless no man with soul so dead that he would not rather serve his native land for a comfortable salary, on Capitol Hill, than to serve it infinitely better by elucidating the problem of agriculture with which wrestle the majority of Americans and from the solution of which must come the sustenance of not only Americans but countless throngs in countries less fertile than ours. There are few men in the senate who have done more for the country than Foster Dwight Coburn. Every Kentucky farmer who has the opportunity to hear him at Lexington or Paducah should do so.

"A living sheet of burnished gold," would not describe the river this morning, but in its way it was pleasing to the eye. The river had the appearance of being packed with floating ice, from the mist that was rising from it. The atmosphere had become colder than the water, causing a dense fog. Many of the boats had to tie up in the night. This morning a few hundred feet from the shore the river was shrouded in an impenetrable fog.

The river fell last night. The stage this morning was 19.9, a fall of .8 in the last 24 hours.

An exposition of marine law was afforded at the Hopkins fire yesterday morning and not by a lawyer. Much bedding and some clothing was thrown overboard between the boat and the shore, and some shantyboaters, scenting salvage with as much accuracy as a vulture would scent its prey, had soon gathered to see "what would turn up." While they were fishing the bedding and clothing out, Capt. Gilbert told them it belonged to the boat but they stood up for their rights of salvage stoutly. The stuff was useless to the boat so the point was not pressed. Whenever anything gets into the water, unlabeled, it belongs to the first person finding it.

Charles Howard, of Metropolis, has been ordered to report to Memphis to take a position as second clerk on the Georgia Lee. It is supposed that the Lee line will come back into the Cincinnati-Memphis trade immediately. However, the present fair stage in the Ohio river is not expected to last through the month. October usually is a low water month, the gauge at this time last year being 3 feet.

The Kentucky will arrive out of the Tennessee river tonight, or late this afternoon.

The towboat Catharine arrived from Cairo last night and left this morning for the Ohio river after a tow.

The Reaper went to Caseyville after coal last night for the West Kentucky Coal company.

A big gasoline boat is coming from Mound City to go on the docks. The high wind yesterday prevented pulling out barges at the ways. Some barges for the St. Louis & Tennessee River Packet company will be repaired.

John Street, night wharfmaster, is sick and was not on duty last night. There were no packets except the Dick Fowler.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio at Evansville will fall during the next 12 hours, come to a stand, and rise. At Mt. Vernon, will continue falling during the next 24 hours. At Paducah and Cairo will fall rapidly during the next several days.

The Tennessee from Florence to the mouth will fall rapidly during the next several days.

The Mississippi from below St. Louis to Cairo, will continue falling during the next several days.

FOR PROTECTION OF CHARTREUSE

Monks of France Bring Suit
In Many Places.

Process and Trade Mark of Three Hundred Years Is Being Imitated by Others.

HOW LIQUEUR IS CONCOCTED.

Paris, Oct. 11.—A series of lawsuits has been commenced by the Carthusian religious order of the Roman Catholic church in a dozen different countries to protect their market for Chartreuse, the liqueur which bears their name and of which they have enjoyed a monopoly for 200 years. One of the suits is pending in New York, where they have applied to the United States district court for an injunction to prohibit the Compagnie Fernier from using the name, trademark and distinctive pattern of bottles which the monks have always used. Testimony is being taken in Paris before Consul General Masor Eugene Kelly, the American lawyer, appears for the French government, which is not nominally a party to the suit, but is vitally interested in the litigation because the Fernier company is operating with its authority. The trouble grows out of the suppression of the religious orders in France and involves the legality of the confiscation of monastic property, not only that of the Carthusians but of all the 92,000 monks and nuns who have been expelled from the republic. Proceedings in Germany, Belgium, Italy, England and to other European countries, and wherever else Chartreuse is sold, will follow those in the United States, which are expected to establish a precedent in the international use of trademarks and other commercial rights.

On Three Centuries.
The liqueur known as Chartreuse has been manufactured by the Carthusian monks for 300 years and for a century and a half at a great monastery called the Grand Chartreuse, near Grenoble in southeastern France. There have been many attempts to imitate it, but none of them have been successful, and until now the French government has been diligent in protecting the monks from infringement. They began to make the liqueur in Paris in 1697, where the receipt was discovered by Marshal d'Estrees, a chemist in the Luxembourg Gardens. He gave it to the monks. Twenty years after Prior Jerome Naubee perfected the process and gave the liqueur the properties which have since made it famous. Owing to the difficulty in getting the necessary herbs and roots, in Paris, the Carthusians removed to the monastery of Grand Chartreuse in 1735, where they have since employed two or three hundred peasants—men and women and children—in addition to about two hundred lay brothers growing the grapes; distilling the brandy, collecting the herbs, manufacturing the liqueur, bottling, packing and shipping it to all parts of the globe.

About forty monks were engaged in superintending the business between their religious exercises. They had an enormous plant, as may be inferred from the fact disclosed in the evidence taken before Consul General Masor that they sold 7,000,000 francs' worth of liqueur the year before they were expelled.

The basis of the liqueur is a grape brandy, very old, smooth and fine, which is flavored by essences distilled from the flowers, berries, leaves and roots of plants which grow wild upon the mountains surrounding Grenoble and have been cultivated in the gardens of the monastery for more than a hundred and fifty years.

Robert Louis Stevenson's favorite recreation was playing the flute, in order, as he said, to tune up his ideas.

Durnovo was the first to speak when the boat came within hail.

"Very sorry," he shouted. "Thought you were a native boat. Must establish a funk—get in the first shot, you know."

"All right," replied one of the Europeans in the approaching craft, with a courteous wave of the hand, "no harm done."

There were two white men and six blacks in the long and clumsy boat. One of the Europeans lay in the bow while the other, was stretched at his ease in the stern, reclining on the canvas of a neatly folded tent. The last named was evidently the leader of the little expedition, while the manner and attitude of the man in the bow suggested the servitude of a disciplined soldier slightly relaxed by abnormal circumstances.

A puff of blue smoke rose slowly over the boat.

"Who fired that shot?" inquired Durnovo, when there was no longer any necessity to shout.

"Joseph," replied the man in the stern of the boat, indicating his companion.

"About as near as I care about. It threw up the dust between my legs."

The man called Joseph grinned. Nature had given him liberality of the wherewithal for indulgence in that relaxation, and Durnovo smiled rather constrainedly. Joseph was grasping at the long reedy grass, bringing the canoe to a standstill, and it was some moments before his extensive mouth submitted to control.

"I presume you are Mr. Durnovo?" said the man in the stern of the boat, rising leisurely from his recumbent position and speaking with a courteous savor faire which seemed slightly out of place in the wilds of central Africa.

He was a tall man with a small aristocratic head and a refined face, which somehow suggested an aristocrat of old France.

"Yes," answered Durnovo. The tall man stepped ashore and held out his hand.

"I am glad we have met you," he said. "I have a letter of introduction to you from Maurice Gordon of Louango."

Victor Durnovo's dark face changed slightly. His eyes—lilac, fever shot, suddenly took a new light.

"Ah! he answered. 'Are you a friend of Maurice Gordon?'"

There was another question in this, an unasked one, and Victor Durnovo was watching for the answer. But the face he watched was like a delicately carved piece of brown marble, with a courteous, impenetrable smile.

"I met him again the other day at Louango. He is an old Etoulan, like myself."

This conveyed nothing to Durnovo, who belonged to a different world, whose education was like other things about him, an unknown quantity.

"My name," continued the tall man, "is Meredith—John Meredith—sometimes called Jack."

"They were walking up the bank toward the dusky and uninviting tent."

"And the other fellow?" inquired Durnovo, with a backward jerk of the head.

"He is my servant."

Durnovo raised his eyebrows in somewhat contemptuous amusement and proceeded to open the letter which Meredith had handed him.

"Not many fellows," he said, "on this coast can afford to keep a European servant."

"I understand," answered Meredith, with a half suppressed yawn, "that the country gets finer further up; more mountainous."

The proprietors of very dark eyes would do well to remember that it is dangerous to glance furtively to one side or the other. The attention of dark eyes is more easily felt than the glances of gray or blue orbs.

Jack Meredith's suspicions were aroused by the suspicious manner of Durnovo.

"There is no white man who knows this river as I do, and I do not recommend it. Look at me, on the verge of jaundice; look at this wound on my arm, it began with a scratch and has never healed. All that comes from a month up this cursed river. Take my advice. Try somewhere else."

"I certainly shall," replied Meredith. "We will discuss it after dinner. My chap is a first rate cook. Have you got anything to add to the menu?"

"Not a thing. I've been living on plantains and dried elephant meat for the last fortnight."

"Doesn't sound nourishing. Well, we are pretty well provided, so perhaps you will give me the pleasure of your company to dinner? Come as you are; no ceremony. I think I will wash, though. It is as well to keep up these old customs."

CHAPTER VII.

IN that part of Africa which lies within touch of the equator life is essentially a struggle. There is hunger about, and where hunger is the emotions will be found also.

Now, Jack Meredith was a past master in the concealment of these, and, as such, came to Victor Durnovo in the guise of a new creation. He had lived the latter and the larger part of his life among men who said, in action if not in words, I am hungry or I am thirsty; I want this, or I want that; and if you are not strong enough to keep it, I will take it from you.

This man was different, and Victor Durnovo did not know, could not find out, what he wanted.

He had at first been inclined to laugh at him. What struck him most forcibly was Joseph, the servant. The idea of a man swaggering up an African river with a European manservant was so preposterous that it could only be met with ridicule; but the thing seemed so natural to Jack Meredith, he accepted the servitude of Joseph so much as a matter of course that after a time Durnovo accepted him also as part and parcel of Meredith.

Joseph took off his coat, turned up his sleeves and proceeded to cook such a dinner as Durnovo had not tasted for many months. There was wine also, and afterward a cigar of such quality as appealed strongly to Durnovo's West Indian palate.

The night settled down over the land while they sat there, and before them the great yellow equatorial moon rose slowly over the trees. With the darkness came a greater silence, for the myriad insect life was still.

"So," said Durnovo, returning to the subject which had never really left his thoughts, "you have come out here for pleasure?"

"Not exactly. I came chiefly to make money, partly to dispel some of the illusions of my youth, and I am getting on very well. Picture book illusions they were. The man who drew the pictures had never seen Africa."

The evening had turned out so very differently from what he had expected that Durnovo was a little carried off his equilibrium. Things were so so close and pleasant in comparison with the habitual loneliness of his life. The five crackled so cheerily, the moon shone down on the river so grandly, the subdued chatter of the boatmen imparted such a feeling of safety and comfort to the scene, that he gave way to that impulse of expansiveness which ever lurks in West Indian blood.

"I say," he said, "when you told me that you wanted to make money, were you in earnest?"

"In the deadliest earnest," replied Jack Meredith in the half mocking tone which he never wholly learned to lay aside.

"Then I think I can put you in the way of it. Oh, I know it seems a bit premature, not known you long enough and all that. But in this country we don't hold much by the formalities. I like you. I liked the look of you when you got out of that boat so cool and self possessed. You're the right sort, Mr. Meredith."

"Possibly for some things. For sitting about and smoking first class cigars and thinking second class thoughts I am exactly the right sort. But for making money, for hard work and steady work, I am afraid, Mr. Durnovo, that I am distinctly the wrong sort."

There was a little pause. Durnovo looked round as if to make sure that Joseph and the boatman were out of ear shot.

"Can you keep a secret?" he asked suddenly.

Jack Meredith turned and looked at the questioner with a smile. His hat had slipped to the back of his head, the light of the great yellow moon fell full upon his clean cut sphinxlike face. The eyes alone seemed living.

"Yes! I can do that."

"I can see you're a gentleman," Durnovo said. "I'll trust you. I want a man to join me in making a fortune. I have got my hand on it at last. But I'm afraid of this country. I'm getting shaky; look at that hand. I've been looking for it too long. I take you into my confidence, the first comer, you'll think. But there are not many men like you in this country, and I'm beastly afraid of dying. I want to get out of this for a bit, but I dare not leave until I set things going."

"Take your time," said Meredith, quietly and soothingly. "Light that cigar again and lie down. There is no hurry."

INTERVIEWS WERE FULLY CONVINCING

Swarm of Humanity at Cooper's Headquarters.

St. Louis Has Become Overwhelmingly Interested in Young Man and His Preparations.

ENORMOUS SALE OF MEDICINE.

St. Louis, Oct. 10.—In view of the enormous sale of Cooper's preparations now going on in this city and the intense interest which Mr. Cooper has stirred up since his arrival, a representative of the Globe-Democrat spent yesterday afternoon at the young man's headquarters, watching the swarm of humanity come and go.

During the afternoon the reporter interviewed many of the callers and obtained statements from all who cared to give them as to their experiences with Cooper and his preparations.

The following are selected from those statements as being typical of the general expression of the people seen:

Mr. W. T. Bray, living at 1120 Angelle St., when interviewed, said: "I had suffered for years with stomach, liver and kidney trouble, seven years, in fact. I had tried many remedies but obtained no help from any medicine I took. I bought one bottle of the New Discovery medicine and one of the Quick Relief. After using them one week, I felt so wonderfully improved I can hardly believe it possible. I am very grateful to Mr. Cooper. He has a wonderful medicine."

Another caller was Mrs. Clara Yohs, living at 1410 Locust St. She said: "I had suffered with stomach trouble for several years. I was so bad the last year I could not eat anything at all. I could not digest my food and had severe pain in my stomach most of the time. I did not sleep well and had severe headaches at times. I have tried many remedies, and have been to a number of physicians. I bought some of this man Cooper's preparations. I feel greatly benefited and have gained steadily in flesh since using the medicines. I have not a trace of stomach trouble left, and have come here to thank Mr. Cooper."

Mr. C. A. Taylor, of 4220 Finney Ave., said: "I have been suffering with severe stomach trouble for several years and owing to the nervous conditions caused by this trouble I could not sleep. The only relief I obtained was when up and walking around. I tried everything heard of for stomach trouble but nothing gave me any relief. I heard so much of this man Cooper that I decided to try his medicine. I have used several bottles and noticed a decided improvement almost immediately. I am now entirely cured, and feel happier than I have for several years."

Mr. John Schenk of 2114 N. 12th St., when questioned, said: "I have had eight years of suffering and sleepless nights on account of stomach trouble and headaches. I have used one bottle of Cooper's preparation, and now rest every night. I have not a trace of stomach trouble left and have been immensely benefited every way."

Mr. S. P. Hitchens, living at 2145 Franklin Ave., made the following statement: "I have suffered with rheumatism for 30 years. I was stiff in all my joints so that I could hardly use them. I have tried Cooper's remedy and have come here to thank him and purchase more, as I can now handle myself perfectly after using the preparations one week. I feel better than I have for years."

Amelia Leonard, living at 1530 Salsbury St., said: "I have suffered for the past ten years with stomach trouble, headaches, dizziness and kidney trouble. I have been treated by a number of physicians and have used all kinds of medicine, nothing did me any good. My appetite was very irregular and my back pained me greatly. In fact my life was a misery to me all the time. I suffered with nervousness and loss of sleep. I have used two bottles of the New Discovery medicine. This morning an immense tapeworm passed from my system. This has undoubtedly been the cause of all my sufferings, and I am very grateful to this man who has relieved me."

In spite of assertions made by various physicians that Cooper is a fad, who will soon die out, the young man seems to be gaining even greater headway as his visits draw to a close. It is estimated that four thousand people called on him yesterday.

AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING AND PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUANCE OF ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS OF BONDS, OF THE CITY OF PADUCAH, KENTUCKY, FOR THE PURPOSE OF BUYING, MAINTAINING AND IMPROVING PARKS, AND SUBMITTING THE SAME TO THE VOTERS OF PADUCAH, KENTUCKY.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE GENERAL COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PADUCAH, KENTUCKY:

Section 1. That the city of Paducah, Kentucky, shall issue bonds to the amount of one hundred thousand ($100,000.00) dollars, in denominations of $1,000.00 each, to be payable at the end of thirty years; said bonds to be serially numbered from 1 to 100 inclusive, and shall bear the seal of the city when issued; shall be issued under the signature of the Mayor, shall be countersigned by the City Treasurer, and shall bear interest at the rate of 4 percentum, per annum, interest payable semi-annually, and shall have interest coupons attached thereto, signed by the Mayor of the city, and countersigned by the City Treasurer. Said bonds shall not be sold for less than par, and accrued interest, and the proceeds shall be used exclusively for the purpose of the maintenance, improvement and purchase of parks, for the city of Paducah. Said bonds shall be made payable at some bank or trust company in the city of New York, and shall be issued under the authority granted the city of Paducah, by Section 157 of the Constitution of Kentucky, and Section 3097 of the Kentucky Statutes.

Sec. 2. The bonds above provided for shall be issued upon the conditions hereinafter set forth: The usual of bonds above mentioned shall not be valid nor binding upon the city of Paducah, until the same shall have been submitted to and voted affirmatively upon by two-thirds of the qualified voters of the city of Paducah, Kentucky, voting at an election hereinafter provided for. And for the purpose of taking the sense of the qualified voters of the city of Paducah, upon the question of issuing said bonds, and an election is hereby called to be held in Paducah, Kentucky, on the regular election day in November, 1906, being Tuesday, November 6th, 1906, and between the same hours in which said regular election is held, and shall be conducted by the same officers who hold the election for Aldermen and other city officers, at the said election, and the votes cast at said election shall be counted and certified in the same manner as provided for by law. That votes for said officials shall be counted and certified, and shall be returned to the same officials and the result shall be announced in the same manner as is provided for by law for election of municipal officers in the cities of the second class.

The qualifications for voters at the said election shall be determined and ascertained by Section 1 Article 7, of the Charter Act of March 19th, 1894. At said election all votes cast shall be by secret ballot, for the purpose of determining the sense of the voters of the city upon this question. There shall be certified to by the Clerk of McCracken county, by the Clerk of the city of Paducah, the fact of the passage of this ordinance, and all the questions to be voted upon, and said Clerk of McCracken county shall be requested and required to have placed upon said ballot to be voted at the regular election in November, 1906, at a specified place on said ballot, the following words:

"For the issuance of One Hundred Thousand Dollars, of bonds by the city of Paducah, Kentucky, for the purpose of maintaining, improving and purchasing parks."

And there shall be left on the right side of said words, two spaces above and below each other, the first, the upper space for voters favoring the issue of said bonds, which shall be designated by the word "YES;" and the other, or lower space, for voters opposing the issue of said bonds, to be designated by the word "NO;" and the voter shall designate his vote by the cross mark. These words submitting the question hereinbefore referred to, to the voters in the city of Paducah, to be printed on the official ballot furnished by the Clerk of McCracken county, for the regular election in November, 1906, for the various precincts, which lie within the city of Paducah, Kentucky.

The said City Clerk shall cause notice of the election herein called, to be given by a publication of these ordinances, in the official newspaper of said city, for two weeks continuously, next before the day of holding the election and said Clerk shall post a printed copy of said ordinance in two public places in each of the voting precincts of the city of Paducah, at least ten days before the date of the said election.

Sec. 3. In the event that two-thirds of all the qualified voters of the city of Paducah, voting upon said proposition shall vote for the issue of said bonds, then the city of Paducah shall issue said bonds, as provided by law, subject to the conditions contained in this ordinance. But in case the proposition to issue said bonds does not receive the votes of two-thirds of the qualified voters of the said city of Paducah, voting upon said proposition, then this ordinance shall be null and void and of no effect.

Sec. 4. That if said bonds are so voted by the citizens of Paducah, the said city of Paducah, by its General Council, shall cause to be levied, a tax not exceeding 5c upon each $100 of value of all the property within the city taxable for municipal purposes to be used for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds as same become due, and to provide a sinking fund to pay off said bonds when same become due.

Sec. 5. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, approval and publication.

Theatrical Notes

KENTUCKY THIS WEEK.
TONIGHT—House of Mystery.
Friday Father Nagle lectures

The House of Mystery.
"The House of Mystery" will be the attraction at The Kentucky again tonight, and is worthy of a good audience. The play, as the name indicates, is one with a theme dealing with the mysterious, and the staging is effective. The audience last night was well pleased with it, and at the solicitation of many of his patrons Manager Roberts secured the play for tonight, the company having an open date.

Father Nagle.
In a letter from Father Nagle to Manager Roberts he states that he will arrive in Paducah tomorrow morning. A reception committee from the Knights of Columbus will entertain him during the day, and at night he will deliver his lecture on Columbus at the entertainment to be given at The Kentucky tomorrow night, commemorating the landing of Columbus.

Simple Simon Simple.
"Simple Simon Simple" comes to The Kentucky next Tuesday night. It is a comic opera of the present popular style, and numbers a big company. The musical numbers have proven to be popular and the show comes well recommended.

Secrets Over the Telephone.

There are many patrons of the telephone who seem to regard that mode of communication as strictly private. For the benefit of these we reproduce the Evening Post's account of the experience of two young women in New York. One was recently urged by the other to tell a secret over the telephone, but she declined for fear she might be overheard. After a second urging Central broke in cheerfully with, "Oh, go on, tell her, I won't listen!"

Power Reduced.

"He started away with sixty horse power," related the new member of the automobile club.
"And what power did he return with?" asked the other members.
"One horse-power."
"What? Do you mean to say one horse power would move that big machine?"
"It had to. The farmer had only one old plug he could spare when the machine broke down twenty miles from the nearest repair shop."

WITH THE WITS.

Stella—Do you advocate changes in spelling? Bella—Only Miss to Mrs.—New York Sun.

"Americans pay too much attention to wealth." "Yes," answered the rural millionaire, "especially the men who assess property."—Washington Star.

Mrs. Newlywed—Does your husband ever talk in his sleep, Mrs. Longwed? Mrs. Longwed—No, dear; he talks in other people's sleep. He is a preacher, you know.—Woman's Home Companion.

Mother (who has been asked to suggest a game for a rainy afternoon)—Why don't you pretend you are me? And George can be daddy. Then you might play at housekeeping. Daughter—But, mother, we've quarreled once already.—Punch.

"That man never uses money in his campaigns." "No," answered Senator Sorphum, "he merely makes promises. He uses credit instead of cash."—Washington Star.
